

FRIDAY, EVENING, DEC. 31, 1886.

MAYSVILLE has a lawyer who, it is told, actually refused a hundred-dollar fee this week, and that, too, for only a few hours' work. He had conscientious scruples about prosecuting a criminal.

SUIT was brought against Madison County not long ago for $10,000 damages for infringement of a jail-lock patent. The plaintiffs certainly haven't much faith in their claims, as they have offered to compromise for $300.

THE BULLETIN says "The Republican has lost its Enterprise," but there are no indications that our neighbor is likely to find it.—Republican.

Don't trouble yourselves, please. We are not looking for that kind of enterprise. It's too Republican.

THE bottom has dropped out of the Mayoralty fight, and the "boys" are left lamenting. They now sing:

'Tis often thus in campaigns' closing hours,
We've seen our fondest hopes decay—
And for the V's we thought was ours,
We'll have to wait till "s'mother day."

ANENT the Mayoralty race, the statement is made that there are some "free American citizens" in town who actually expected to make enough out of the fight to live on the rest of the winter. It's too bad that such industrious, enterprising people should meet with disappointment at the eleventh hour.

THE BULLETIN was afraid to say anything against the "Star Shoe Store" man until he was safely out of the city and certain not to return. That newspaper is alive enough to its own safety not to attack anybody near enough to strike back.—Republican.

Oh, my! What a deal of courage our neighbor exhibited when he "attacked" a poor little shoe store. If the proprietor of the "Star Shoe Store" had only shaken a few little local "ads" at Brother Davis, his courage (?) would have oozed out of his fingers' ends at a wonderful rate. "Sour grapes," neighbor. It's too plain a case.

Fashionable Fads.

Velvet with lace effect in two tones is exceedingly rich.

Ivory white velvet for evening dresses has tinted floral designs.

Bar pins with pendants of onyx, moonstone or hematite are worn.

Pompadour designs occupy a leading place in the fabrics for evening wear.

Opals are growing in favor. The superstitious even are tempted by them.

The gold beads of our grandmothers are again in vogue for necklaces and bracelets.

Large hoop earrings in Roman finish. New designs are looped with diamonds.

A rich opera cloak of dark maroon and sky-blue brocade is lined with zibeline fur.

Queen chains are of gold with vermicelli finish and of onyx with faceted oval links.

Velvet, with Persian designs on satin ground, has the figures outlined with tinsel.

Brooches have the crescent and star design in diamonds supported by a ciner.

Solid gold buttons are the latest fancy for fastening the bodices of dresses of rich fabrics.

Plaid velvets have not been a success this season in spite of the attempt to popularize them.

Plush, with designs of tinted plumes and peacock's feathers upon brown grounds, as well as scroll and floral effects, is in high favor.

Dinner robes are of faille Francaise combined with plain velvet, and a novelty consisting of stripes of figured velvet with satin ground in two tones.

A Good Man to Work For.

(Cincinnati Enquirer.)

When Mr. Pulitzer took charge of the New York World, he began by giving prizes for extra good work. As he grew more and more successful he began making presents to all the employees of the World. One day he gave away three hundred orders for hats. Christmas, 1885, he gave a turkey to each of his employees; next he took his compositors on a picnic and raised their wages several cents a thousand ems. His last generous act was the purchase of two hundred shares in the Building and Loan Association started by the men on his paper. They cost twenty-five cents a week or $2,500 a year. When he purchased them he at once divided them among five persons then seated around him. "He has so much money he does not know what to do with it. He is up to his neck in it," said a Socialist writer the other day. "He asked me to write something for him. I wrote a column and a half and he sent me a check for $150." He has also given the members of the Press Club $1,000 or so "to enjoy themselves," and has endowed a bed for sick journalists in one of the hospitals with the salary of his place in Congress.

It was in Congress that he made his only failure in recent years. He found it did not rhyme to be a Congressman and the owner of a newspaper. He was criticised for what he did print, and for what he neglected to print, and life became a burden to him. With Amos J. Cummings it will be different. He regards his election to Congress as promotion in his business. He is not responsible for the news in any paper, and so will have a pleasant career in Washington.

ANARCHISM PROCLAIMED.

Excitement in Chicago Over an Editorial in the Arbeiter Zeitung.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—There was a little flurry of excitement in the states attorney's office yesterday over an editorial in yesterday's issue of the Arbeiter Zeitung. The article asserts that the state has no money for the poor, but millions for usurers, cut-throats, monopolists and favorites, and last, but not least, will use these millions for the purpose of creating a standing army, which will be created for the purpose of oppressing the working people.

The article concludes: "When they have created a standing army, a military station, a Fort Logan, that means civil war, and death and destruction to the workingmen. The workingmen, the small tradesmen, the farmers, all thinking and liberty-loving men, have but one answer for that, namely, arming. Arm yourselves with the cheapest, the best, the most effective arms, such as can be handled easiest, whether Gatling guns, Winchester rifles or pistols. Workingmen, be men. Do not stand by idle and without plan, when your enemies are arming themselves to annihilate you. Your honor, your self-esteem demands this of you. Now there is time, but it may soon be too late."

Terrors of the Town Run In.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Dec. 31.—Albert Hall and his half-brother, Charles Cason, who have made themselves conspicuous as terrors in Boone and Montgomery counties for some time past, went to Thorntown Tuesday and instituted a reign of terror, chasing people off the streets at the muzzle of dangerous looking revolvers. After indulging in this exciting sport until they tired of it, they took from the public hitch rack a horse and sleigh and started toward Darlington. Pursuit was made by the Thorntown Horse-thief Detective association, which sent a posse of men after them. Near Darlington they were overtaken, and left their sleigh and started across a field pursued by the officers. The fleeing negroes were fired upon and both wounded. They were taken to Lebanon on the evening train and jailed. Hall's wounds are of a serious nature, but not necessarily fatal.

The South Pennsylvania Syndicate.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—At yesterday's meeting of the South Pennsylvania syndicate in this city, Mr. Barrett's proposal to assist the enterprise if the road were completed, was not discussed. A committee was appointed to learn the views of the stockholders as to finishing the road. The statement of those at yesterday's meeting was in favor of pushing it.

Police Judge Feathers His Nest.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—Police Sergeant Danforth, of Englewood, read statistics to the Northern Englewood Improvement association, last night, tending to show that Justice Tierney, of the town of Lake, had collected nearly $10,000 in the last six months, of which not one dollar had been turned over to the town treasurer. He also questioned Capt. Markey's integrity.

A Minister Suicides Through Grief.

MACON, Mo., Dec. 31.—Rev. Clayton Kelso, a Presbyterian minister, committed suicide yesterday morning at his home by hanging himself by the neck from a beam in his barn. He had just returned from the funeral of his sister, and it is supposed that excessive grief over her death unbalanced his mind.

A New Trial Denied.

TRENTON, N. S., Dec. 31.—Judge Beasley has denied the motion for a new trial of Titus, the Hackettstown janitor, sentenced to death for the murder of Tillie Smith.

Lung Disease Among Hogs.

CARSON, Iowa, Dec. 31.—Many farmers are losing all their hogs by a new lung disease. J. W. Griffin has lost 300 in the last ten days.

Not Quite Ready for Prohibition.

ZALESKI, O., Dec. 31.—Local option was voted here by a vote of 95 to 82.

To the Voters of Maysville.

There are rumors that I have formed combinations with candidates for other offices at the approaching election. I wish to emphatically deny any reports of that character. They are not true. I am making the race for myself alone, and have formed no combinations at all.

JAMES HEFLIN.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all coughs and colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery. Trial bottle free at the drug stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, as flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, bleeding and itching piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosancho's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the inflammation, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address the Dr. Bosancho Medicine Co., Florida, O. Sold by Geo. F. Wood.

ADVERTISERS send for our Special List of Local Newspapers. Geo. F. Rowell & Co., 10, Spruce street, N. Y.
